

Dear Applicants,

A new version of the Online Visa Application Form will be applicable for applicants wishing to apply for a Visa to India.

The new online application form, which will need to be completed when submitting documents for a visa to India, will commence from 23rd November 2010 across the United Kingdom and will be mandatory for all applications made at the India Visa Application Centers (IVAC) on behalf of the High Commission of India (London) and the Consulate General of India (Birmingham and Edinburgh). From this date onwards, the new format of the visa application form shall be available on the VFS global website <http://in.vfsglobal.co.uk>. If there is any information that you would require – please email us on info.inuk@vfshelpline.com.

All applications made on and after 23rd November 2010 would require applicants to follow the new application form and duly sign on the same. Applicants are required to submit two photographs along with their applications – a) one photograph pasted on the application form and b) second photograph stapled on the reverse of the form. No new handwritten application forms will be accepted at any of the India Visa Application Centers effective from 23rd November 2010. The existing application form will be unavailable on VFS Global's website after 23rd November 2010, except the additional information forms (Non-UK form, Colombo form, Beijing form and Additional information form for Employment Visa etc). Internet kiosks are available in the IVACs for easy access to the online form.

Do's

- Please ensure to note the interim unique reference number generated at the start (and seen on each page) of the online application form
- Please record/ note the final reference number that is generated upon completion of your application
- Provide an email address in your application so that information on your unique reference numbers can be sent
- Applicants are advised to schedule an appointment through the website though this is optional
- Please submit a confirmed and detailed itinerary if applying for a double/triple entry visa. However, this does not guarantee the issuance of a visa and the decision would still remain subject to the discretion of the High Commission of India (London) and the Consulate General (Birmingham and Edinburgh).
- Applications MUST be signed by the applicant him/herself and not by any representative
- For Postal Applications – please allow 10 to 15 days, from the date it is posted, before the application can be processed
- Before submitting your visa application, please check your passport(s) to ensure there is no valid visa for India
- All fields on the Online Application Form must be completed in as much detail as possible. When entering address information, please ensure that you provide the Post Code as well.

Don'ts

- Offline/handwritten application forms will not be accepted at the IVACs for applications made on or after 23rd November 2010
 - Photographs with colored background will not be accepted. Photographs only with a white / off white background will be accepted at the IVACs
 - Please do not staple both photographs to the application Form. One must be pasted to the front of the Form while the second must be stapled to the reverse side
 - Please ensure all applications requiring additional documents are completed prior to submission at the IVACs. Information to this effect is given on the website <http://in.vfsglobal.co.uk>
 - In case you wish to use the SMS service (optional additional service at a nominal charge) the format of the number that you would enter must be as per the instructions given against that field. Please note that the SMS would not be triggered if the format of the number is incorrect

Processing Time

Under normal circumstances, most visa applications will take a minimum of 2-3 working days to process. This may vary for specific visa categories, non-UK passports and certain nationalities, where the turnaround could be much longer. This decision is at the sole discretion of the High Commission of India and its Consulates.

All visa seekers are recommended to confirm their travel plans only after obtaining the visa.

For more information please visit <http://in.vfsglobal.co.uk>

VF Services (UK) Limited will be responsible only for accepting and processing applications. All applications will continue to be assessed by the High Commission of India, London and its Consulates General in Edinburgh and Birmingham. Timelines for turnaround of visas are as per the discretion of the authority.
